Dr. and Mrs. Peter Harbison with their son Ronan at his graduation from the Faculty of Business.
Aungier St, November 2001
Above left:
Tony Kelly on his retirement after 42 years in business as a cobbler in Bride St. May 2001

Taoiseach Bertie Ahern
T.D. and students Cathal Brugha St. February 2002
Jimmy Magee, broadcaster and Declan Glynn, DIT Sports Awards. March 2002
Lloyd Grossman, TV Food personality and Joe Erraught, lecturer, DIT
Cathal Brugha St. September 2002
Prof. Patrick Fottrell,
Chairman Governing Body,
Marian Finucane, DIT
graduate and RTE
broadcaster, Salters Stirling,
TCD and Prof. Brendan
Goldsmith, President DIT,
Cathal Brugha St.
November 2002
Prof Li Sheng, Harbin IT China with DIT staff and colleagues, on his receipt of award of Hon. PhD, December 2002
Bob Collins, RTE Director
and Ellen Hazelkorn,
Director Art and Design,
Aungier St. May 2002

Eamon O Cuiv T.D.,
Minister for the Gaeltacht
and Ita Ní Chionnaíth,
Aungier St. April 2003
DIT President Prof. Brian Norton,
10k Student Walk, Science Week.
Aungier St. November 2003
Micheál O Muircheartaigh, launches ‘Cumarsáid’, Seachtain na Gaeilge. DIT Aungier St. March 2004
Business Student David Gillick, 400m, indoor European Gold Medal winner, and Paidí O’Shea, DIT Sports Awards. March 2004
Micheal Mulvey, Director of Food and Tourism; President Prof. Brian Norton with Michael O’Halloran on his receiving hon. PhD Award, Frank McMahon, Director of Academic Affairs, November 2004
Prof. Brian Norton confers Hon. PhD on Louis Le Brocquy, a former Kevin St student. November 2004
Professor Neville Hogan receives his Hon. PhD award from President Brian Norton. December 2004

Dublin City Manager John Fitzgerald receives his Hon. PhD award from President Brian Norton. December 2004
Craig Barrett, CEO Intel, Hon. PhD with President Brian Norton and Mike Murphy, Director, Faculty of Engineering. December 2004
DIT Fellows.
Front row (left to right): Frank Brennan, Hugh DeLacy and Michael O'Donnell with President Brian Norton.
Back row (left to right): Dr. Frank McMahon, Dr. Mike Murphy, Paddy Healy, Dr. Declan Glynn, Dr. Matt Hussey, Dr. Tom Duff. December 2004
President Professor Brian Norton with Frank Heneghan, Tom Madden and R.J. Lawlor, Hon DIT Fellowship Conferring. February 2005
President of Ireland Mary McAleese, also includes Tommy Cooke, Head, Community Links DIT; Prof. Brian Norton, President DIT; Terry
Landers, Head Corporate Affairs, Microsoft Ireland; Jacinta Stewart,
CEO, CDVEC. Community Links Conferring, DIT Aungier St. April 2005
Singer, Leslie Dowdall (DIT Design Graduate) at Art and Design Exhibition, City Hall. May 2005

Paul Farrell on his retirement from DIT Aungier Street, with Paul O'Sullivan, Director of the Faculty of Business and Peter Masterson, Head Porter, Aungier Street. November 2005
Orla Guerin. Broadcaster and Rathmines journalism graduate Hon. PhD.
Aungier St., November 2005
George Hook, DIT graduate, broadcaster, rugby pundit. Aungier St., November 2005

Left:
Sean Dorgan, Chairman DIT Governing body and Chairman IDA at DIT Industry Think-Tank. November 2006

David Cagney, Director of Human Resources DIT, Long Service Awards. November 2006

Inaugural Conferring of the title of Professor in DIT. Left to right: Murrough Golden, Michael Devereux, Brendan O'Shea, Matt Hussey, Jim McGovern. Front row: Marlene Proctor, Brian Norton, Daphne Gilbert. March 2007
Professor John Ratcliffe,
Director of the Faculty of Built Environment, and Cllr Aodhán
O Riordáin, Deputy Lord Mayor of Dublin, National Skills Competition Awards, The Mansion House, March 2007
Jimmie Robinson has photographed the development of Dublin over its first 120 years from his photographic memoir, he also paints an evocative picture of Dublin City and its people.

who have played a part in its different aspects of life.

Technology, for example, a photographer by profession, he also adorned the writer of his memoir is also an historian,
and a keen observer of Irish life.