Guess What?

We're looking for money again!

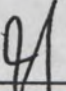

Within weeks important elections take place in Northern Ireland.

Within a year we face a vital general election in the Republic.

Democratic Left needs funds to promote our political programme. Existing standing orders from members and supporters play a very valuable role in boosting our resources. We now appeal to people in employment who do not have a standing order to sign on for one year. This will help fund our work into the general election.

The Standing Order will become operational one month from now. Please sign the form below and return to the Administration desk.

Thank You,

John Gallagher,
General Secretary.
