'Teaching and Learning amidst Difference and Diversity'

Week 10: Wednesday 2 April

Elisabeth Lillie,

Professor Emeritus of Language Teaching and Learning,
University of Ulster, and colleagues (see below)

This seminar, in which Sense and Sensitivity: Difference and Diversity in Higher Education Classrooms (ed. Elisabeth Lillie, Peter Lang, 2013) will be launched, will offer a discussion of key themes arising from the volume by a number of the authors. Professor Lillie will introduce the topic and discuss her research on the situation in Higher Education in France. Valerie Morgan, Professor Emeritus of Women's History and Ethnic Conflict, University of Ulster, will look at certain issues in Northern Ireland, while Dr. Marty Meinardi and Dr. Sue Norton, Lecturers in English in the School of Languages, Law and Society, Dublin Institute of Technology, will focus on the challenges presented by groups of multicultural learners.
