Social Programme

19.30 Monday, 20 January – Let Luas in Dublin - This evening will ease you into the slow simple life in Ireland. We will get a bite to eat at Dunne and Crescenzi (www.dunneandcrescenzi.com) on South Frederick St, just a few minutes’ walk from our hotels followed by drinks in Café en Seine (www.cafeenseine.ie) on Dawson St. [at delegate’s expense].

19.30 Tuesday, 21 January Travel Massive @ ENTER2014
O’Neill’s Bar situated just a few steps away from the glamorous shopping of Dublin's Grafton Street, and the historic site of Trinity College, is one of Ireland’s most traditional pubs. This pub has the feel of an Ireland of old. A characterful space where everyone is welcome. The small snug to the front is the haunt of regulars who have been coming here for many a year. Here they sit with a quiet pint and the newspaper. Beyond this, a myriad of nooks and crannies, snugs and corners, where original bric-a-brac and artefacts adorn the walls. This pub begs to be explored. The ambiance is absolutely incredible and the memorabilia hangs on the walls and from the ceilings will have you gawking like a child. Friends gather, business colleagues discuss, tourists marvel. Live music is a feature at O’Neill’s, once again compounding the traditions you’d anticipate at a real Dublin pub. O’Neill’s is the epitome of Dublin pub life, for all who walk through its famous doors and is a perfect setting for Travel Massive @ ENTER2014. http://www.oneillsbar.com/ [at delegate’s expense].

19.30 Wednesday, 22 January – Welcome Reception @ the Guinness Storehouse
Guinness Storehouse sits in the middle of Dublin, in the legendary St. James's Gate Brewery, home of Guinness since 1759! In days gone by it was a fermentation plant, but today it's been transformed into Ireland's number one international visitor attraction and world class event destination. The evening will commence with a step through the magical experience and go on a Guinness journey to learn about the fascinating story behind one of the world’s most iconic brands. This will be followed by a reception in the world famous Gravity Bar. A striking and impressive part of Dublin’s skyline. The symbolic ‘head of the pint’ hovers above the roof of Guinness Storehouse, offering uninterrupted 360 degree views across the city and as far as the Dublin Mountains. The Gravity Bar never fails to impress. The rest of the evening’s exciting entertainment will take place in Arthur’s Bar and we have a trick or two up our sleeves in Gilroy’s. The entire evening will add up to a night to remember with the very best of Irish hospitality and the warmth of the Irish welcome. http://www.guinness-storehouse.com/
19.30 Thursday, 23 January - Shindig @ The Old Jameson Distillery

A Shindig – “A large, lively party, especially one celebrating something”. This definition perfectly describes what is going to happen on this evening. The Shindig is the ultimate way to experience the Irish culture and soak up the unique ambiance of the Jameson Distillery in Dublin. The evening begins at 7 pm with a welcome reception followed by a guided tour of the Old Jameson Distillery museum. Led by an expert guide, learn the processes behind whiskey making and learn a little about this historic Irish brand. From there the fun really begins. Take traditional Irish music, dancing and fun and place it with a delicious 4-course dinner, locate it in a picturesque setting, and add a batch of the finest Irish whiskey. What do you get? A shindig to remember at the Old Jameson Distillery! A real Hooley of an evening!!

20.30 Friday, 24 January – The ENTER Exit

The suggested restaurant for the Friday night is the Market Bar and Tapas restaurant (http://www.marketbar.ie) located on Fade Street just a short walk from the recommended hotels. We will then go on for drinks at Hogan’s Bar (www.pubsdirect.ie/hogansbar) on South Great George’s St. [at delegates expense].
