the progress made by individual students during the earlier year of the Course, will serve as an indication of their suitability for particular trades or other occupations in which they may seek apprenticeship or employment, and will be fully considered when arrangements are being made for their Second Year, and their subsequent admission to the more specialised Courses of the Schools.

Parents and Guardians will be required to enter into an undertaking:—

1. To ensure a regular and punctual attendance of the student during the Session.
2. Not to remove the student from the School before the end of the year without offering sound and valid reasons.
3. To be responsible for the return of all books, instruments and materials loaned to the student by the Schools.
4. To notify the Chief Executive Officer of the Vocational Education Committee should the student contract any infectious or contagious disease.

Examinations and Reports:

The progress of students will be tested by periodical examinations and full reports furnished to parents.

Attendance:

Regular and punctual attendance is essential, and failure in either particular will be notified to parents. Unsatisfactory attendance will involve expulsion from the Course.

Fees:

The fee for each year of the Course is £1. A limited number of free places will be awarded on an examination test and the recommendation of the Principals.

Fees cannot be refunded.

Students who through obtaining employment are unable to continue in attendance at the Whole-time Day School Courses of the City of Dublin Vocational Education Committee will be admitted to approved Evening School Courses, without fees, up to the value of the Day School fees paid.

Only those boys who give evidence of having reached a satisfactory standard of general education will be admitted to the Courses B and C. This will be determined by means of a written examination, and a limited number of suitable boys will be admitted free to these Courses.

All other boys between the ages of 14 and 16 years whose standard of education is not sufficiently good for enrolment in Section B1 or C1 will be admitted to the Preparatory Course “A.” The Fee for this course is £1 per session (September—June).

On the completion of one year of attendance, Section “A” boys may proceed to one of the Sections B1 or C1, while those attending B1 or C1 during their first year will proceed to the Second Year Course B2 or C2.

Application for admission to the above courses should be made to:

RINGSEND TECHNICAL INSTITUTE.
